4 March - 18 March 2006

Festival Guide

Music • Dance • Speech • Drama

---

Two weeks . . . 170 hours of performances . . . 7,000 performers . . . bands, orchestras, ensembles and choirs . . . not to mention hundreds of soloists . . . This is your guide to the 94th Glasgow Music Festival.

With such a large and varied programme there are sure to be events for you. Come along and enjoy the performances, share the excitement and, if you like, compare your views with the adjudicator's assessment! Tickets for all events can be purchased at the door (see listing for prices). Souvenir Programmes are on sale during the Festival.

Highlights include:

- Scottish Country Dancing - Saturday 4 March
- Premier Woodwind and Brass - Tuesday 7 March
- Songs from the Shows - Friday 10 March
- Premier Strings - Friday 10 March
- Choral Evening - Monday 13 March
- Band Night - Tuesday 14 March
- Vocal Masterclass - Tuesday 14 March
- Premier Vocal - Wednesday 15 March
- Premier Piano - Thursday 16 March
- Last Night of the Festival - Saturday 18 March

Explore these pages for other attractions - Scottish traditional music; public speaking; drama; school orchestras, bands and choirs; television news reading and many, many more. Visit our website for further information. Don't miss the Last Night of the Festival, a showcase of the best performances.
